

Non-exclusive Commercial Licence Terms and Conditions

After purchasing one or more of our commercial-use acapellas, the following terms and conditions apply:

- You must credit us (AAP) and the featured artist (e.g. Grafezzy) in the title of your track on whichever platform(s) you upload it to.
- Non-exclusive means that anyone can download and licence the sound recordings, subject to our terms and conditions. The sound recordings are not removed from the website after they have been downloaded or licensed.
- You are granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable, perpetual right to use purchased vocals in combination with other sounds in music productions to create derivative works. This means that you may modify, reproduce, publicly perform, distribute, transmit, communicate to the public and otherwise use purchased vocals, including for commercial purposes.
